Emil Kurschat

Britton.—Funeral services for Emil Kurschat, who passed away Tuesday, Dec. 20, following a lingering illness, at the home of his son, Eric, where he has made his home for the past two years, were held from the St. John's Lutheran church, with the Rev. W. E. Koch officiating.

He is survived by his wife, one son, Eric of Britton, and two daughters in Germany. He was preceded in death by one brother and eight sisters.—Britton Journal.

Emil Kurschat and wife came from Germany about two years ago to make their home with their son, Eric and family, while the latter were residents of this city, prior to moving to Britton a short time ago, where Mr. Kurschat is now engaged in business.
